

SAVE THE DATE!

Fourth Annual Santa Clara County Binational Health Week Conference

Reducing Health Disparities for Latino Immigrants A Call to Action

Monday, October 6 2008

8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Morgan Hill Community Center
Morgan Hill, California

Featured Speakers:

Martin Fenstersheib, MD, MPH

Health Officer and Acting Director, Santa Clara County Public Health Department

David E. Hayes-Bautista PhD

Director, Center for the Study of Latino Health and Culture, David Geffen School of Medicine,
University of California, Los Angeles

Gil Villagran, MSW

Lecturer, School of Social Work, San Jose State University

Cost: $30 (cost includes lunch, conference materials and continuing education credits for Nurses, Dietitians, Marriage and Family Therapists/LCSW, and Health Educators)

Registration Available Soon

For more information contact Lillian Castillo, (408)847-4610 or Lillian.Castillo@hhs.sccgov.org

Sponsored by: Anthem Blue Cross, Excel to Health, FIRST5 of Santa Clara County, Kaiser Permanente, Mexican American Community Services Agency, Santa Clara County Public Health Department, Saint Louise Regional Hospital, Santa Clara Family Health Plan, South County Collaborative, and South County HEAL